Martin Tollinsky is the Chief Financial Officer at Validity Finance. With extensive experience in the finance industry, Martin has held various roles across Private Equity, Asset Management, and Hedge Funds. He spent four years at EY as an Auditor, focusing primarily on Private Equity and valuations.

Martin is not only a seasoned finance professional but also an avid cyclist. He rides over 4,000 miles a year, raising funds for Camp Simcha, a camp dedicated to supporting children suffering from challenging diseases, including pediatric cancer.
